DISSENTING PROPOSALS

I

I am surprised at the sudden change in the proposals regarding Parliamentary constituencies No. 12 and 13 i.e. Janjgir (SC) and Bilaspur.

2. You may remember that the only change agreed in the meeting was that of Lormi being added to Bilaspur Parliamentary Constituency, and Marwahi to Mandla (ST 21). With this minor modification the original proposals were sound because of compactness in the two areas.

3. Now with your latest change in these two constituencies, the contesting candidate will have to face a good deal of hardships. The proposed Janjgir (SC) constituency has become the lengthiest and for S.C. candidates it will be very costly for a few percentage of more votes from the S.C.

4. Between Janjgir, Sakti and Katghora tahsils, there is a natural and close affinity because of geographical and other factors. The industrial development at Korba has recently increased the inutual contacts. There is absolutely no contact among the people of Sakti, Janjgir and Mungeli tahsils. It is therefore no use joining Sakti tahsil and Janjgir tahsil with Mungeli tahsil and thus forming a Parliamentary constituency.

5. If you have a glance at the map, you may see that the S.C. candidates will have to cross 6 big rivers i.e. Hanph, Agar, Manlari, Arpa, Lilagar, Hasdeo and Son—when approaching the voters. Moreover they may be required to go through the island of Bilaspur (100) and Takhatpur (95) Assembly constituencies unnecessarily. In this way you may see the idea of compactness goes to the winds.

6. In the light of above I propose the following :—

12. Janjgir (SC)—Bilaspur Distt. (8)

	SC
89. Rampur (ST)	9.55
99. Masturi (SC)	26.52
101. Akaltara	24.91
102. Pamgar (SC)	27.22
103. Janjgir	19.44
104. Baloda	18.93
105. Sakti	15.28
106. Malkharoda	24.64
TOTAL	20.81

13. Bilaspur—Bilaspur District (8)

	SC
90. Katghora
91. Tanakhar (ST)
94. Ghurku
95. Takhatpur
96. Lormi
97. Mungeli (SC)
98. Jarhagaon
100. Bilaspur.

Subject:—Revision of Legislative Assembly, Constituencies of Gourela, Marwahi, Tanakhar, Ghutku and Baloda in the Bilaspur district (dissenting proposals).

I have carefully gone through the revised proposals so kindly forwarded by you. While endorsing the recommendations contained therein, I have only to request in connection with revision of the proposals with respect to Marwahi, Gourela, Ghutku, Tanakhar and Baloda Legislative Assembly Constituencies in the Bilaspur district.

2. You will please appreciate that my alternative proposals do not change the nature of the constituencies except for Gourela which could be a general constituency. A considerable portion of the existing Gourela constituency has been included in the proposed Marwahi constituency which even according to standing proposals is a Scheduled Tribe.

3. The reasons in support of the revised proposals are as under:—

1. P.Cs. 31—33 and 36, 37 of Kota R.I.C. are better connected with Marwahi area than with Kota and Gourela areas. As a matter of fact, almost impregnable forests are situated between these PC's on one hand and Kota and Gourela areas on the other.
2. The proposed Constituency of Tanakhar is comparatively more compact administratively than the one in the draft proposals. Its southern portion namely P.C. 56, 57 and 58 of Pali R.I.C. has better and convenient links with Baloda than with the rest of the Tanakhar constituency. They should, as such, be included in Baloda constituency.
3. P.Cs. 68, 69, 74—77, 99 and 100 of R.I.C. Sipat are separated from Baloda area by dense forests. It will be in administrative and public convenience if this area is included in the Ghutku constituency.
4. Gourela constituency as proposed has better communications.
5. The proposed constituencies are ideal from the point of view of physical features, existing boundaries of administrative units, facilities of communications and public convenience.
6. This proposal does not disturb the existing constituencies as such, except adding a few P.Cs. by way of minor adjustments.
7. The proposed changes will also be helpful in the interest of general progress of the various areas.

4. Details of the reconstituted constituencies with population is enclosed. I am also taking liberty of enclosing map [not reproduced] showing the constituencies as proposed by Commission and the changes recommended by me.

5. Kindly publish the same in Gazette.

Subject:—Proposal to make minor changes in the proposed Basoda (230) and Kulhar (231) constituencies of Vidisha district.

I have gone through the literature regarding delimitation of the constituencies of Vidisha district.

2. I wish to place the following suggestions for consideration of the Hon'ble Members of the Commission:—

- (i) That RIC Bhonrasa included in Kulhar (231) constituency should be transferred to Basoda (230) constituency and RIC Basoda including Basoda town from Basoda (230) to Kulhar (231); and these constituencies be named as No. 230—Kurwai and No. 231—Basoda (SC).
- (ii) This change will make the constituencies more compact thereby resulting in lessening the difficulties of travelling long distances within the constituency.
- (iii) That the proposed change shall be within the four corners of the policy laid down by the Commission with regard to minimum and maximum population in each constituency, and the SC constituency shall also remain the same with a slight change.
- (iv) Since Kurwai and Basoda both are tehsil headquarters of the district, it would be better to retain these constituencies in the name of Kurwai and Basoda.

3. If the proposed change is effected, the position with regard to the above two constituencies will be as explained in the enclosed statements No. I and II.

4. The remaining two constituencies of this district namely, Vidisha (229) and Sironj (232) require no change and will remain as proposed by the Commission. Kindly publish it in gazette with your proposals.

Subject:—Revision of Legislative Assembly Constituencies of Bindra-Nawagarh and Rajim, in the Raipur District (Dissenting proposals).

I have carefully gone through the revised proposals so kindly forwarded by you. While endorsing the recommendations contained therein, I have only to request in connection with proposals with respect to Bindra-Nawagarh and Rajim Legislative Assembly constituencies in the Raipur district.

2. You will please appreciate that my alternative proposals do not change the nature of the constituencies except for Bindranawagarh, which could as before be a Schedule Tribe constituency.

3. The reasons in support of the revised proposals are as under:—

1. Bilaspur district has a Schedule Tribe population of 3,67,092 and in that district four seats have been reserved for Schedule Tribes in the draft proposals of the Commission. On the other hand, in Raipur district, which has a Scheduled Tribe population of 3,10,161 one seat only has been reserved for the Schedule Tribes which is, it would kindly be appreciated neither fair nor equitable. On the basis of the consideration shown to Bilaspur district, Raipur can consist claim to have atleast two seats reserved for Schedule Tribes. This would be fair even on the principle of natural justice.
2. A glance at the map of Raipur district as well as the population figures of this district will clearly show that Siahawa and Bindranawagarh and Deobhog areas are predominantly tribal. That is why the last Delimitation of constituencies, Siahawa and Bindranawagarh had been reserved for Schedule tribes.
3. In the Commission's proposals Reservation for Bindranawagarh constituency has been done away with and it is likely to affect adversely the interests of the Tribes to a substantial extent.
4. Bindranawagarh constituency lies in Kanker Schedule Tribes Parliamentary constituency also and it provides considerable support to my contention that it will be in the fitness of things if Bindranawagarh Assembly constituency is restored as Schedule Tribes one.
5. The proposed constituencies are ideal from the point of view of physical features, existing boundaries of administrative units, facilities of communication and public conveniences.

6. This proposal does not disturb the existing constituencies as such, except by adding a nominal area of two P.C's by way of minor adjustments.

4. It is, therefore, earnestly requested that the Commission may be pleased to restore the reservation to Bindranawagarh constituency. This could easily be done by transferring P.Cs. 34 & 35 of Chhura RIC in Bindranawagarh Tahsil to Bindranawagarh constituency. These two patwari Halkas have an overwhelming population of Schedule tribes and they have more intimate links with Bindranawagarh than with any other place in Rajim constituency.

5. Details of the reconstituted constituencies with population is enclosed. I am also taking liberty of enclosing a map (not produced) showing the constituencies as proposed by the Commission and the changes recommended by me.

On the 6th September, I received the finalised proposals regarding the Delimitation of Assembly and Parliamentary constituencies of Madhya Pradesh. I have not been able to go through the whole draft within the short period of 5 days. Hence I would send afterwards, my points of objection, if any, regarding rest of the constituencies. This note is only about the assembly constituencies of Churhat and Sidhi of Sidhi district.

I had very little objection to the original draft in respect of the delimitation of Churhat and Sidhi constituencies. But I am sorry to say that I find it extremely difficult to agree to the final draft.

The main points of objection are:—

1. River Son is one of the biggest rivers of the country. It has mountain ranges on either sides of its bank. To cross it even on foot is very difficult and during rains impossible. If one has to go to a village, say two miles away on the other side of the river, he will have to traverse a long distance of 60 to 70 miles and even more sometimes.

Most naturally this river should form the boundary of Churhat and Sidhi assembly constituencies. Neither constituency should be so delimited as to stretch across the river. This will also be in accordance with the obligatory provisions of law. The final draft, therefore, needs to be amended accordingly.

If the final draft remains as it is, it will be most inconvenient to the electors and their representatives. They will be deprived of their valued right of being in constant touch with each other due to Son river.

— I would, therefore, suggest that entire Churhat constituency must be on the north and entire Sidhi constituency must be on the south of river Son.

—H—PCs 83, 84 and 88, 89, 90 of RIC Semaria should be in Sidhi constituency on grounds of contiguity, compactness and public convenience. They are totally cut off from the rest of the proposed Churhat constituency—the former two by Kehenjua Mountains and the latter three by Deonerhi river.

After taking out PCs 83, 84 and 88, 89, 90 of Semaria RIC from Churhat constituency and adding them to Sidhi constituency some adjustment has to be made keeping in view the population figures. PCs 35, 36, 37 and 39 of Amilia RIC may, therefore, be added to Churhat constituency which are quite contiguous.

If the first point of objection as raised above, is accepted the second does not arise at all. However, if the first point is not accepted the second remains to be considered. If neither point is acceptable, then this entire note may kindly be published as my note dissent.

CHANDRA PRATAP TIWARI,
Associate Member.

I am sorry to say that I do not agree with some of the proposals of the Delimitation Commission with regard to Assembly and Parliamentary Constituencies in Madhya Pradesh State and I give below the alternate proposals for adoption. These may please be published as dissenting proposals under Section 9(2) of the Delimitation Commission Act.

S. No. and name of Assembly Constituency	Proposed extent	Population
		Total	SC	ST
1	2	3	4	5
1. Sheopur	Sheopur Tahsil	126,095	20,482 (16.24)	25,000 (19.83)
247. Khacharaud	Khacharaud Teh.	126,438	32,038 (25.34)
248. Barnagar	Barnagar Teh.	102,891	20,331 (19.76)

The above three are the only constituencies in which the Tahsil boundary could be kept in tact similar to about 22 other constituencies. Constituencies Nos. 27 (Guna) and 40 (Laundi) in the Commission's proposals are having a population of 130,029 and 127,333 respectively and each comprises of one whole tehsil. The same principle should be applied to the above three constituencies. The population of Barnagar tahsil is enough to form one constituency. In the Commission's proposals there are several constituencies having a population less than one lac. Constituency No. 157 (Waraseoni) has a population of 92,568 only while No. 158 (Khairalanjee) has still less population of 89,289 only.

2. Bijeypur	Bijeypur Tehsil; PCs 39 to 41, 43 to 44/2 and 52 to 55 of Kailāras RIC and PCs 1 to 5 of Sahalgarh I RIC in Sahalgarh Tehsil and PCs 67 to 72 of Pahargarh RIC in Joura Tahsil.	101,918	17,965 (17.62)	14,463 (14.19)
3. Sahalgarh (SC)	Sahalgarh I RIC (excluding PCs 1 to 5), Sahalgarh II RIC and Kailāras RIC (excluding PCs 39 to 41, 43 to 44/2 and 52 to 55) and PCs 1, 2, 3 & 5 of Bharra RIC in Joura Tahsil.	104,818	24,962 (23.87)	148
4. Joura	Joura Tehsil (excluding PCs 1, 2, 3 & 5 of Bharra RIC and PCs 67 to 72 of Pahargarh RIC).	124,575	24,165 (19.39)	133

The result of the above changes would be that Sahalgarh becomes a reserved constituency for the Scheduled Castes. It has been so reserved at present. Constituencies Nos. 6 Dimni and 7 Ambah in Morena District being contiguous and carved out of one Tahsil should not be both reserved constituencies. This point was considered by the last Delimitation Commission and as a result thereof Sahalgarh was made a reserved constituency. It would also be in conformity with the provisions of Section 9(1) (C) of the Delimitation Commission Act. The Commission also made Sahalgarh a reserved constituency in their previous proposals.

6. Dimni (SC)	Jigni RIC in morena Tahsil and Dimni RIC and PCs 4, 5, 24 & 25 in Ambah RIC in Ambah Tahsil.	107,161	27,809 (25.94)	—
7. Ambah	Ambah Tahsil (excluding Dimni RIC & PCs 4, 5, 24 & 25 in Ambah RIC in Ambah Tahsil).	115,895	23,405 (20.26)	—

The above changes will also help formation of Sabalgarh as a reserved constituency and would give higher percentage of Scheduled Caste population in Dimni reserved constituency.

24. Shivpuri	Shivpuri Tahsil (exclud- ing PCs 44, 45, 59/1 and 60 to 63 in Shivpuri RIC), Manpur RIC in Pichhore Tahsil and PCs 22 to 26 and 30 in Karera RIC in Karera Tahsil.	117,104	16,671 (14.23)	14,565 (12.44)
25. Pohri (SC)	Pohri Tahsil and PCs 44, 45, 59/1 and 60 to 63 of Shivpuri RIC in Shiv- puri Tahsil.	101,663	21,221 20.87	13,054 12.83
26. Kolaras	Kolaras Tahsil	109,922	21,051 (19.15)	12,612 (11.47)

The result of the above changes is that Pohri becomes a Scheduled Caste reserved constituency in place of Kolaras proposed as such by the Commission. Pohri is already a reserved constituency at present. There are no good facilities of Communications between Pohri and Dholagarh RIC, which is better connected with Shivpuri Tahsil. Pohri with some PCs of Shivpuri RIC would be more compact, will be having very good communications and smaller area.

239. Gulana (SC)	Gulana and Barodia RICs and PCs 25 to 32 of Sha- japur RIC in Shajapur Tahsil and PCs 4 to 7, 9 to 15 & 17 of Akodia RIC Shujalpur Tahsil.	103,152	27,308 (26.47)
------------------	---	---------	-------------------	--

1		2
240 Shajapur	Shajapur Tahsil (excluding Barodia and Gulana RICs and PCs 25 to 32 of Shajapur RIC) and Akodia RIC (excluding PCs 4 to 7, 9 to 15 & 17) in Shajapur Tahsil.	106,103	23,190 (21.85)	..
242. Agar	Agar Tahsil	108,794	27,214 (25.01)	..

The above changes make Gulana a Scheduled Caste reserved constituency with a higher percentage of Scheduled Castes. Gulana is a reserved constituency at present and should continue as such.

The above proposals make Bhind constituency reserved one instead of Morena. Morena as a reserved constituency would be very unweildy and its area would be more than double that of Bhind as proposed by the Commission. The above change also results in higher percentage of Scheduled Caste population in the reserved constituency. At present Bhind is the reserved constituency and with very good communications and much less area should remain as such. It would also be desirable to have it a reserved one in the interest of public convenience. The Commission had also originally proposed the above 3 constituencies as suggested by me now.

Constituencies No. 92 Marwahi and No. 93 Gourela have been included by the Commission in Mandla Parliamentary Constituency. Both the constituencies Nos. 92 and 93 are not at all contiguous to Mandla District. There are mountains between these two constituencies and Mandla District and there are no facilities of communications and it is most inconvenient to reach those places from Mandla District. Gourela constituency is already at present in the Shahdol Parliamentary Constituency. I have, therefore, put in No. 92 Marwahi and No. 93 Gourela in Shahdol Parliamentary Constituencies so as to form a convenient, a contiguous and a more compact constituency with easy communications. This change has resulted in recasting of the above Parliamentary Constituencies, Mandla with No. 168 Bargi and No. 196 Ghansoor becomes a more compact and a better Parliamentary constituency in every respect.

37. Mandsaur. The only change to be made in this Parliamentary constituency is to substitute Jaora Assembly constituency No. 288 for Alot (SC) constituency No. 289.

The Commission overlooked the provisions of Section 9(1)(a) in locating the parliamentary constituencies reserved for the Scheduled Tribes. There are 15 Assembly constituencies reserved for the Scheduled Tribes in the four districts namely: (1) West Nimar, (2) Jhabua, (3) Dhar and (4) Ratlam. All these 15 Assembly constituencies are contiguous and can all be included in the two parliamentary constituencies to be reserved for the Scheduled Tribes. This arrangement will also give the highest proportion of the Scheduled Tribes' population to the total population. In the first General Election Sailana Assembly Constituency was reserved for the Scheduled Tribes and had been included in the Jhabua Parliamentary Constituency. The Khargone and Jhabua Parliamentary constituencies as proposed above fulfil above conditions and give out much higher proportion of the Scheduled Tribes population as compared to that given out in the commission's proposals. Khargone as proposed by the Commission and stretching out from Khargone to Sonkatch becomes most unweildy, with no facility of communications and causing great public inconvenience. Dewas district can better join either to Ujjain or Indore district areas. Indore and Ujjain cities are the headquarters of the Commissioner and Additional Commissioner and as such Dewas is administratively connected to Indore and Ujjain districts. It has no administrative connection with Khargone or West Nimar district. After carving out Ujjain, Indore, Khargone and Jhabua Parliamentary constituencies the Assembly constituencies left over may together better comprise Dhar Parliamentary constituency as proposed above. Jaora constituency has continued to form part of Mandsaur parliamentary constituency and there is no reason why it should be disturbed now. Moreover, a person going from Alot to Mandsaur has first to go to Jaora and from there to Mandsaur. It is, therefore, proposed that Jaora should remain with Mandsaur.
